PORT CREDIT BIA BOARD OF DIRECTORS NOMINEES

John Pappas — The Crooked Cue | Incumbent Director
John represents The Crooked Cue, a longstanding Port Credit business with 28 years in the community. He has extensive Board experience, including serving two terms as PCBIA Chair, along with involvement in Visit Mississauga and the Port Credit Community Foundation. John is focused on strengthening Port Credit's identity and ensuring that the BIA continues to serve the broader business community.

Dorothy Hagel — Hagel Lawfirm Professional Corporation | Incumbent Director
Dorothy is a lawyer whose practice has operated in Port Credit since 2009. As a current PCBIA Board member, she brings legal expertise and experience serving on community boards. She is particularly interested in supporting local businesses as they navigate rising costs and a slowing economy, while helping maintain Port Credit's welcoming, small-town character.

Paul Michel — FRAM Building Group Ltd. | Incumbent Director
Paul represents FRAM Building Group, which has operated in Port Credit for 28 years. He currently serves as PCBIA Treasurer and a member of the Executive Committee, bringing extensive business, financial and development experience. Paul has focused on strengthening financial oversight and long-term planning, while promoting Port Credit as a leading destination for shopping, business and tourism.

Ken Nolasco — Klawcadia | Incumbent Director
Ken represents Klawcadia, which has operated in Port Credit for approximately two and a half years. He brings business ownership, corporate experience and a background in leadership. Ken is interested in contributing creative ideas and practical business strategies, with a particular focus on increasing foot traffic, strengthening marketing and encouraging collaboration among local businesses.

Marissa Caserta — Maker Market Collective | Incumbent Director
Marissa is the owner of Maker Market Collective and brings over 20 years of experience in graphic design and marketing. She currently serves on the PCBIA Board as well as the Beautification and Marketing Committee. With firsthand experience supporting Canadian small businesses, Marissa is passionate about encouraging people to shop local, building community partnerships and creating initiatives that bring more visitors to Port Credit to shop, dine and explore year-round.

Marlene Baur — Royal LePage Real Estate, Larose Team Brokerage | Incumbent Director
Marlene brings real estate experience and four years of Board service, along with involvement in other community organizations. She is particularly interested in beautification, marketing and business attraction. Marlene would like to see Port Credit expand its retail offerings, create a more consistent experience throughout the district and build on the area's waterfront location and unique character.

Ryan Long — Spice Lounge & Tapas | Incumbent Director
Ryan represents Spice Lounge & Tapas, a business with 19 years in Port Credit. He brings hands-on hospitality experience and involvement in the BIA's Safety and Security initiatives. Ryan is particularly interested in supporting Port Credit's evening economy, improving pedestrian traffic, enhancing village lighting and strengthening the district's identity as a vibrant waterfront destination.

Sue Peric — South70&Co | Incumbent Director
Sue is the owner of South70&Co and an advocate for local, women-owned businesses. She also brings significant leadership experience as a Director of Airport Operations at Toronto Pearson Airport, where she manages a large team. Sue is passionate about community involvement, supporting independent retailers, encouraging diverse businesses and helping Port Credit grow as a welcoming shopping and tourism destination.

Tanya Ellis — Pooches N' Pals | New Candidate
Tanya is the owner of Pooches N' Pals, which has operated in Port Credit for 15 years. She brings firsthand small-business experience and has participated in local BIA events and community activities. Tanya is passionate about helping independent businesses succeed, encouraging greater collaboration and making Port Credit an even more welcoming and accessible community.

Tariq Rahaman — Revamp Hair Lounge | New Candidate
Tariq represents Revamp Hair Lounge, a business that has operated in Port Credit for seven years. He brings experience in business ownership and community volunteering, including involvement with the Salvation Army and the Hospital for Sick Children. Tariq is interested in increasing year-round foot traffic, supporting businesses ensuring that the interests of businesses of all sizes are represented.

Daniel Boyce — Suds Launderette | New Candidate
Daniel is the owner and operator of Suds Launderette, a Port Credit business operating for over 15 years. He brings experience in business management, customer service, financial oversight and executive communications. Daniel is interested in supporting independent businesses, improving year-round customer traffic and addressing challenges such as rising costs, parking and community safety.